entry fee: $160

DETAILS

- The top 14 entries in world ranking order at the close of entries will gain automatic acceptance to the Main event
- Players will be notified within 3 days of close of entry if they have been accepted into the Main event, or if they have been offered a place in the Qualifying event
- Players who miss out on automatic entry to the main event will take part in the Qualifying event and will receive a refund of $100, reducing their entry fee to $60.
- A maximum of 16 entries will be accepted into the Qualifying event, which will run from Tuesday 25 February to Thursday 27 February. Two players will qualify from the Qualifying event for the Main event
- Players ranked outside the top 200 in the world at 31 December 2019 can enter the Qualifying event directly, for an entry fee of $60. No further entry fee for the Main event is payable by the two players who qualify from the Qualifying event.
- The Main event will be played initially in four blocks each of four players, followed by a double-elimination knockout and a plate event.
- Block positions will be based on World Ranking order 14 days prior to the start of the event, with the winner and runner-up from the Qualifying event taking positions 15 and 16 respectively
- Block winners and runners-up will play a double-elimination knockout, while 3rd and 4th placed players will play a single-elimination knockout
- The format and duration of the Qualifying event will depend upon the number of players taking part, but will be block play possibly followed by either a final or semi-finals and a final
- There will be billets available for players who need them
- A travel subsidy may be available to interstate players
- Three gift vouchers for Dixon Advisory services will be won by the players completing the most and longest peeling turns during the tournament
- Both the Qualifying event and the Main event will be played during the day and under lights in the evening. Atkins Quadway hoops will be used for all games, set to 3 11/16 inches
