

Playing / Non-playing Side of a Hoop

Over-hitting to a position for a hoop is common for a new player. Coming through the hoop from the non-playing side can be introduced early, providing you explain how a point is scored.

At the beginning of a turn you cannot score a point unless the Striker's ball is totally on the playing side of the hoop, or it entered the hoop in a previous turn and came to rest on the playing side.

